

MBTS scares best team in league

Prospect	3
MBTS	1

Grand Cayman,
5 December 2009

Montessori By The Sea football team shocks table-toppers Prospect Primary, leading 1-0 at the half before falling 3-1.

CHASING GLORY. Little Adian played big in Saturday's memorable match. Photos by Mr. Guy

Skillful Lewis McMurdo frustrated Prospect players all morning.

Bryce made some crucial saves in goal for MBTS.

Marissa Harrison sweeps in to make a key tackle early in the first half.

Above: Ben Boyd
shuts down a Prospect attack.

At left: Alex
Cummer jockeys for position.

At left: Marissa stops a dangerous first-half attack

Below: Adian races for control.

MBTS tired and faltered late in the second half as Prospect's relentless pressure paid off. But the effort by MBTS was no less remarkable.

“Do you realize how far you have come?”

–Coach David Boyd

Eathan, left, makes a big tackle.

On the rise

After the match, Coach David and Coach John reminded the MBTS player how much they have improved this season. For example, they lost their first match by some 8 goals. Last Saturday, however, they were good enough to lead the best team in the league for half the game.